State Senate To Probe Commission-Utility Relations

Gov. Pinchot Is Ignored In Plan To Investigate

Regular Republican Organization Forces Introduce Own Resolution

PROPOSE COMMITTEE OF INVESTIGATORS

Want An Appropriation Of $100,000 From State To Finance Probe

By SIDNEY H. EIGES
International News Service Staff Correspondent
HARRISBURG, Aug. 17.—The State Senate today prepared to launch the most sweeping investigation of relations between the Public Service Commission and public utilities since inception of the regulatory body in 1913.

Riding roughshod over the demand of Gov. Gifford Pinchot that the investigation be entrusted to Attorney General William A. Schnader, regular Republican organization forces introduced their own resolution through Senator William S. Rial, Westmoreland.

With an introduction that criticized the governor for "killing measures offered in last year's session to buttress the public service commission laws, the Rial bill provided for appointment of a committee of seven senators to conduct the investigation and report to the 1933 session of the Senate. The committee was authorized to ask co-operation of the Attorney General but was given full power to choose its own chief counsel and investigating aides.

Program Outlined
The Rial resolution, a substitute for the one offered last week by Senator Frank Harris which named Schnader as counsel in the probe, contemplated an exhaustive investigation along these channels:

1. Allegations that money or costly favors were given commissioners by utilities or utility representatives to influence commission decisions.
2. Improved relations between

PA NEW OBSERVES

Mrs. W. E. Perver, president of the local branch of the Needlework Guild again reminds the women of the city that the ingathering of garments this fall for the needy will be a memorial to Mrs. John Wood Stewart, the founder of the organization, which does so much to relieve the needy. She asks that the women make an extra garment during the summer months, so the ingathering in November will be the largest the community has ever had.

It is odd, how temperatures on the same date compare almost identically with those of the same date the year preceding. There was just one degree difference between the temperature of yesterday and that of a year ago on the same date.

Almost anyone would give a sigh of satisfaction to see that overgrown chunk of coal that's resting outside an East Washington street wholesale firm's place, standing in their coal cellar. Even though it's hot now, the fuel could generate lots of heat next winter.

A full-sized sofa, and several chairs, rested atop a passenger automobile carrying a Michigan license tag, seen downtown this morning. Of course, the radiator hood, tire rack and side running boards were employed to good advantage. But the top was the only place for the sofa.

SALES TAX BILL IS PASSED BY ASSEMBLY

By JOSEPH A. LOFTUS
International News Service Staff Correspondent

HARRISBURG, Aug. 17.—The Hagmaier general sales tax bill rode triumphantly to passage in the house today. The vote was 123 to 62. It was to be sent immediately to the senate where its adoption was forecast.

After passage of the bill, the house adopted a resolution offered by the rules committee fixing adjournment "sine die" for Friday noon, August 19. The measure was sent to the senate for concurrence.

In the heated debate which preceded vote on the sales tax measure, Rep. D. Glenn Moore, Washington, former Pinchot leader, told the house he would cast his vote for the legislation "with my tongue in my cheek."

Forced To Use Limited Amount Of Produce From Own Gardens

LEADING HIGHWAYS ARE UNDER GUARD

(International News Service)
SIOUX CITY, Ia., Aug. 17.—A shortage of vegetables, created by the farmers' strike, today forced Sioux city residents to resort to picking the limited crops of their private gardens.

One hundred armed special deputies, meanwhile, patrolled the highways leading into the city to guarantee protection for any farm trucks which might seek to penetrate the blockade set up by the agricultural strikers.

Sponsored by the Farmers' Holiday association, the strike was organized to force prices of milk, produce and livestock to higher levels.

World War Veteran Will Lose Leg In Machine Accident

Payment Of Bonus Money Causes Man To Go On Spree, Ends Fatally

(International News Service)
NORFOLK, Va., Aug. 17.—His bonus payment cost Paul Anderson, world war veteran his right leg today.

Anderson received a six hundred dollar loan on his adjusted compensation certificate last week, purchased an automobile, and set out to celebrate.

His machine was wrecked when he tried to turn a curve near here while moving at about sixty miles an hour, a companion was killed.

Anderson, his leg broken in three places, spent the last of the six hundred dollars for ambulance charges for transportation to a local hospital.

Physicians said the leg would have to be amputated.

Last Of A. E. F. Coming Home To Good Old U. S. A.

(International News Service)
PARIS, Aug. 17.—The "rear guard" of the A. E. F. is going home. Berthard Ragner of McKeesport, Pa., believed to be the last remaining member of the A. E. F. in France, is sailing on August 31 for the United States.

Ragner landed at Bordeaux early in 1918 as a private in the 320th Infantry. Immediately upon being demobilized, he went into newspaper and publicity work in Paris.

Rep. Elder Peelor, Indiana, anti-tax advocate, likewise told the house that although firmly opposed to the new tax bill he would be forced to vote for the measure "because there appears to be no other method of raising funds for relief purposes."

Replying to assertions of some legislators that the Hagmaier bill was devised mainly to aid Philadelphia, Rep. Clinton Sowers told the house that the Root bill passed earlier in the session extended Philadelphia the right to pass taxation measures for local relief. He said Quaker City members were voting for the Hagmaier bill "to help the rest of the state."

The bill, placing a one per cent tax on all sales of tangibles except real estate and foodstuffs sold by farmers directly from the field to the consumer, takes effect September 1 and continues for six months. It is estimated to raise between $12,000,000 and $15,000,000 for relief purposes.

Awakened about one o'clock this morning by a commotion in his turkey pen, John Zakel of the Pulaski road, hurried to that place and found that the maurader in this instance was a large screech owl, which had already killed two turkeys. Mr. Zakel went after the owl and captured it alive. It has a wing spread of three feet. He has the owl penned up at the present time and it is attracting great attention.

Illinois Miners Planning March, Deputies Armed

Special Deputies Will Try To Halt Advance On Big Coal Field

PROTEST ON WAGE OF FIVE DOLLARS

Serious Trouble Is Looked For In Mining Section Of Illinois Today

(International News Service)
SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Aug. 17.—Striking miners were mobilizing today for a march on the Taylorville coal fields where an army of special deputies has been organized and barricades erected to repel an invasion.

Protesting against the new five dollar a day basic wage scale, the rebellious miners assembled in mass meeting here last night and were told by their leaders to gather for the 27-mile advance to Taylorville tomorrow.

The special objects of the contemplated march will be the picketing of the four Peabody mines which have been operating under the new scale, manned by union miners who accepted the wage agreement recently declared in effect by district officials of the labor organization.

(International News Service)
Taylorville, Ill., Aug. 17.—Nearly every available able-bodied citizen of this community stood prepared today to turn back the threatened invasion of Christian county coal fields by striking miners.

Additional hundreds of American Legionnaires and business men were sworn in as special deputies by Sheriff Charles Wienecke. Patrols of this hastily-organized "home guard" kept vigil on the roads. Barricades blocked the two main highways and entrances to the four Peabody mines where 1500 union men were working under the new five-dollar daily basic wage scale.

Officials continued to defy the union insurgents who have repudiated the wage agreement and who were gathering in Springfield for the march on Taylorville. Any attempt at picketing will be resisted, Sheriff Wienecke declared.

Steel Merger In Ohio Progresses

Affiliation Of Newton Steel With Corrigan-McKinney Company In Effect

(International News Service)
CLEVELAND, Aug. 17.—The affiliation of the Newton Steel company, of Newton Falls, O., and Monroe, Mich., with the Corrigan-McKinney Steel company, of Cleveland, was declared in operation today following the deposit of the required amount of Newton common and preferred stock with the Union Trust company, Cleveland.

Corrigan-McKinney will now proceed with plans to increase its capitalization to provide the additional shares needed to carry out the consolidation, according to an announcement of William C. Mather, chairman of Corrigan-McKinney.

The stock exchange plan, as revealed on June 30, was one share of Newton preferred for one voting and one non-voting share of Corrigan-McKinney common, and one share of Newton common for one share of Corrigan-McKinney voting and one share of Corrigan-McKinney non-voting common. A more economical operation arrangement is expected to result from the affiliation.

Sustains Cut Face In Auto Accident

Claims Machine Struck Car Parked Without Lights Burning

Mrs. V. Mabelle Truby, 942 Maryland avenue, today reported to police last night that her automobile had struck a machine owned by the Shenango Motor company in Maryland avenue. She said the machine struck was parked without lights burning.

Mrs. Mary Giacone, an occupant of the machine operated by Mrs. Truby received a laceration of the face.

The accident occurred about 9:30 p. m.

WILL ROGERS says:

(Special To The News)
BEVERLY HILLS, Cal., Aug. 17.—This Mayor Walker investigation would be a great money maker, if they would just move it around and make one-day stand in each town. That would be a touring "Olympics" with the mayor as "Babe" Dirrickson.

The farmers are on a strike in Iowa. Instead of selling their stuff for nothing, they just eat it themselves, and that saves 'em the expense of hauling it to town.

Funny they never thought of that before. I have always claimed that if every farmer eats all that he raised, that he would not only get fat himself, but farm products might "probably" go up.

Course, on account of this not being an economist's idea, it might not work.

Yours,

France Seeking Debt Extension After December

Claimed France Trying To Get European Nations To Protest To U. S.

GREAT BRITAIN STEERING CLEAR

By LINTON WELLS
International News Service Staff Correspondent

LONDON, Aug. 17.—France is urging European debtor nations to join in a common front against the United States on war debts, International News Service learned on semi-official authority today.

The French government seeks to have the European debtors decline to resume payments due December 15 at the expiration of the Hoover moratorium, and meanwhile approach Washington privately with the unanimous suggestion, if possible, that their debt agreements be modified.

France will seek to have the agreements with the other nations changed to conform with that made

Someone Takes Lens From Police Camera

And Worse Than That It May Be Impossible To Get New Lens

Had the facts been discovered earlier it is likely a detective would have been assigned to the case to discover who removed the lens from the camera used to take photographs of persons arrested here.

But the theft was not discovered until Chief John Haven examined the camera in the detectives bureau recently.

And worse than the fact that the lens is gone, comes information from the manufacturers that another lens cannot be had.

The lens was taken before Chief Haven assumed his duties it is said and when it was desired to use the camera the lens was discovered missing.

The machine was purchased during the administration of Mayor William Dunlap.

Many of the photographs have resulted in the identification of men apprehended here having been on the wanted list elsewhere.

MUSSOLINI CONTENTS U. S. WILL GET ALONG

(International News Service)
ROME, Aug. 17.—The United States will find a way out of the world crisis by her own traditional means without the aid of a single leader to pilot the masses toward the goal of recovery, Premier Benito Mussolini declared in an interview today.

"America does not need a Mussolini," Il Duce said.

"Her own conditions and traditions will enable the United States to find a way out of her present situation."

The fiery Italian dictator affably discussed prohibition, disarmament and the forthcoming presidential elections. He evidenced keen interest in each topic, and spoke with traditional forthrightness on every one.

"It is a case of disarmament or war," he said. "We must have real disarmament or there will be a crash that will wreck our entire civilization."

"I do not believe there can be perpetual peace. It is not possible. That is my philosophy from observation of world conditions and history."

"But it is not my policy. I want peace. I hope for it. But that is a question of 'to be or not to be.'"

On the question of prohibition, Premier Mussolini had a word of advice to America.

"I am a 'wet,'" he said. "I am convinced prohibition is immoral, which is something America should learn from the example of Finland, which, after years of prohibition, finally killed the anti-liquor law."

Colonel Lindbergh Makes Plea Through Press That Public Forget Him

BABY MAY BE NAMED DWIGHT

Weight Of Baby Is Announced Today As Six Pounds And Eleven Ounces

(International News Service)
ENGLEWOOD, N. J., Aug. 17.—The happiness which came to America's national idols, Col. and Mrs. Charles A. Lindbergh with the birth of their second son was reflected today in the hearts of this entire community and the country.

Col. Lindbergh's own appeal that his child be saved from the fierce blast of publicity which he believed largely responsible for the kidnapping and death of his first son served only to restrain the public exhibition of joy and interest felt in the event.

In homes, in shops, on the streets, wherever two or more persons gathered, speculation and curiosity about the baby manifested itself.

What Name?

Especially keen, since the first announcement that the child weighed six pounds eleven ounces and both mother and child were doing well, was the interest in the name the boy would be given.

The birth certificate was not to be filed for four or five days, but there was a report the baby would be named after its famous grandfather, the late Senator Dwight W. Morrow, father of Anne Morrow Lindbergh who so bravely went through the tragedy that robbed her of her

Four French Naval Airmen Killed When Plane Crashes Pole

(International News Service)
PARIS, Aug. 17.—Four French naval airmen were killed at Bizerte, Algiers, when a seaplane struck telephone wires and burst into flames, according to a report received here today.

Piccard, held up for more than a week by unfavorable weather over the Alps, said he was finally satisfied with forecasts.

Final preparations were being made for the flight, on which he and his assistant, Max Cosyns, will soar approximately ten miles into the skies to obtain first-hand data on atmospheric conditions in the stratosphere.

Slight Drop Seen In Relief Demand At County Office

Distribution of relief orders at County Welfare Officer M. B. Hogue's office has slackened somewhat during the past few weeks, it was declared today by the director. Dependents on the county's funds are now receiving orders only half the amount as formerly given since the poor district's treasury is low. It is hoped that the decreased amount can be more widely distributed.

Government-provided flour sacks while rapidly diminishing are still being supplied to the needy.

Reconstruction Finance Figures Refused Public

First Report Of Corporation Is In Hands Of Secretary Of Senate

REASONS WILL BE MADE KNOWN SOON

Some Difference Of Opinion Regarding Clause Requiring Publicity

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, Aug. 17.—South Trimble, Clerk of the House of Representatives today indicated he will not make public the monthly report of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation.

The first report of the corporation, covering the last ten days in July, is now in his hands, he said. The secretary of the senate has already stated he will keep secret the R. F. C. report while congress is in recess. The only other official to whom the report goes is the president.

Trimble sought legal advice before taking his position, he said. He also said that briefs strongly in favor of publicity for the report, and just as strongly opposed, had been filed with him. Public announcement of his position with a formal statement setting forth his reasons for withholding the report, will be made public by Trimble late tomorrow.

The report was delivered to Secretary Edwin Thayer of the senate and Clerk South Trimble of the house.

Trimble announced that he would make a final decision tomorrow afternoon on whether to give the report publicity through the newspapers. Thayer flatly refused to permit newspaper men to see the report.

The document submitted to congress, it is understood, contains a list of loans made to banks and other corporations during the latter part of July.

When congress passed the Garner-Wagner relief bill, which became a law July 21, it incorporated

Favorable Trade Balance Shown

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, Aug. 17.—A favorable trade balance of $28,000,000 was reported today by the Department of Commerce for July merchandise exports for the month amounted to $107,000,000. Merchandise imports amounted to $79,000,000.

Exports for July 1931 were $180,772,000 and imports $174,460,000.

Exports for the seven months ending July 31 amounted to $848,048,000. Imports for the same period were $826,890,000.

Would Have Case Come Before A Jury Before The National Election

PRISONERS FACE HEAVY SENTENCES

By WILLIAM S. NEAL
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Aug. 17.—Trial before the national election of three veterans indicted here for assaults on policemen during the "bonus riot" of July 28 was demanded today by Jesse C. Duke, counsel for the veterans.

Although District Attorney Leo W. Rorer said the veterans would be tried at the October term of District Supreme Court, Duke predicted that Federal officials would make an effort to delay the trial until after the election in November.

Duke, who was retained by the American Civil Liberties Union to defend the three members of the ill-fated bonus expeditionary force, declared he would fight the charges "all the way."

a clause requiring monthly reports to congress.

This provision was inserted in the bill in the house on demand of Speaker Garner and Rep. Rainey of Illinois, the Democratic leader.

At that time it was fully understood by the house that the reports would become public documents when filed.

The senate in the closing days of the session threatened a rebellion against the relief bill because of the publicity clause.

The revolt was quelled when several senators, including Senators Borah (R) of Idaho, Glass (D) of Virginia, Robinson (D) of Arkansas, and Reed (R) of Pennsylvania, interpreted the amendment to mean that the secretary of the senate and clerk of the house would not have authority to make public the loans without express approval of either body.

This position was assailed by Rep. Rainey after the bill had been sent to the president. He warned Clark Trimble that he might be inviting removal from office if he refused to make the documents public.

In another demand for publicity Rep. La Guardia (R) of New York said that he planned to visit Trimble's office and forcibly obtain the documents if necessary.

Trimble conferred with Speaker Garner of the house early today but he denied publicity of the loans was discussed. Trimble said that he has received approval of both advocates and opponents of publicity and that he will consider both carefully before making his final decision.

Great Britain, although she has indicated she will reopen debt negotiations with Washington, will not join any united front such as that proposed by France.

The British government has not taken favorably to the French suggestion because of its desire to take independent action on the question and also because of the conviction that to join such a united front would react adversely on American opinion and possibly preclude the chances of permanent debt revision.

Wineland, who had been located at Denver, Colo., disappeared 20 years ago while enroute to work in the Altoona shops. His wife died four years ago at Hollidaysburg, while his father, John F. Wineland died in an accident.

A daughter, Mrs. Catherine Covey, Ebensburg, was named the sole beneficiary of his father's estate. Wineland plans to return to the northwest.

TRAPPER CAPTURES SNOWSHOE RABBIT

(International News Service)

DENVER, Aug. 17.—Snowshoe rabbits, which, scientists say, are really hares, were captured by J. C. Hyatt, a Denver trapper, in the mountains near Alma, Colo. Hyatt, who has trapped in Colorado for many years, declared they were the first he had ever seen.

The name "snowshoe" was given the species because their hind feet are unusually large, allowing them to walk on the surface of the softest snow. They are extremely hard to see, as their color varies with the seasons, being white in winter and a grayish brown, which blends with their usual background, in summer.

Now they want an appropriate slogan for relief and reconstruction. What about the one used by R. F. C.: To him that hath shall be given?

commissioners and utility representatives.

3. Unfair advantages obtained by utilities through corrupt practice.

4. Administration of utility law.

5. Affairs and personnel of the commission since 1913.

The committee was empowered further to investigate any other matters which it "deems necessary" and was extended full powers to subpoena persons and records and take testimony outside the commonwealth. An appropriation of $100,000 provided by the house will finance the probe.

The appropriations committee, of which Senator Harry B. Scott, Centre, is chairman, was slated to meet today to act on the Harris and Rial resolutions. The organization controlled committee was expected to report the Rial resolution to the Senate for passage.

Rial Is Favored
Senator Rial, chairman of the committee named to investigate Governor Pinchot's charges against W. D. B. Ainey, the invalid chairman who resigned under fire, was favored to lead the new inquiry. With one exception, the same personnel was to be named to the committee.

Because of his affiliations as counsel for several utilities, Senator Clarence J. Buckman, Bucks, declining last night to continue on the investigating committee. Senators William H. Earnest, Dauphin, Samuel W. Salus, Philadelphia, James J. Coyne, Pittsburgh, Charles Klippinger, Franklin and Warren Roberts, Democrat, Northampton, were slated to continue their work under Senator Rial.

The bills which the governor was charged with scuttling in the Rial resolution were adopted by the Senate in the last regular session while the Pinchot-controlled house was framing legislation to institute a fair rate board in place of the commission. In the ensuing deadlock, each chamber nullified the work of the other.

Organization senators said the investigating committee would not begin its work until a full study has been made of the evidence which Governor Pinchot said is already in the attorney general's hands. All hearings were expected to be held in Harrisburg.

NEW ORLEANS, Aug. 17.—The dignity of United States senator's court meant absolutely nothing to pretty Ruth Williams, 27, waitress.

Commissioner Carter gaped when Ruth walked into his court to answer charges of violation of the prohibition laws. She explained the brilliantly-hued pajamas were the costume she wore while working as a waitress and she hadn't had time to change.

PHILLIPS-EHRMAN WEDDING AT HOME

In the hallway at Elm Court, the bride's home, Miss Stella Phillips, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin D. Phillips of Butler, was married to Roland Leroy Ehrman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Ehrman of Butler, yesterday at 1 o'clock. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Louis D. Riddell, pastor of the North Street Church of Christ, Butler. Tall standards of lilies and a background of clematis ferns marked the bridal path to the improvised altar beneath a tall window.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white tulle with puffs of white tulle outlining the sleeves of the little jacket, and the edge of the skirt. She wore a white crepe turban, and carried a bouquet of gardenias and lilies of the valley.

Miss Clorinda and Miss Undine Phillips, sisters of the bride, were her only attendants. They were gowned alike, one in pink and one in blue chiffon gowns made with long full skirts and brief capes. They wore large picture hats and carried arm bouquets of pink roses and delphinium.

Wendell Campbell, brother of the groom, served as best man, and Benjamin Dwight Phillips, Jr., brother of the bride, was an usher.

Following the ceremony there was a luncheon for the immediate families. The bride's table was decorated with delphinium and pink roses and tall tapers in silver candelabra.

Mr. Ehrman and his bride left for a motor trip and will be at home in Elm Court after September 15.

M. C. CIRCLE HAS AFTERNOON TEA

To bring a flower garden inside is quite a task, but this is what the members of the Margaret Copeland circle of the Third United Presbyterian church did Tuesday afternoon when they entertained at a tea party in the church parlors.

Small tables were arranged about the room and these were centered with gladioli in beautiful shades, and Mrs. John King, program chairman, had an interesting program arranged, which included a piano solo by Elizabeth Aiken; a reading by Patricia Montgomery; vocal number by Mrs. Thomas McNicholas; readings by Mrs. John King; a piano number by Margaret Leslie and then the speaker of the afternoon was introduced.

Mrs. W. Taylor, who with her husband, Dr. Taylor, is visiting in the community during their year of furlough from missionary duties in India, gave a most interesting talk on her work.

Concluding the program dainty refreshments were served at the small tables.

EVENING CLUB HAS MOONLIGHT PICNIC

The members of the "Evening Club," which was an organization formed of school teachers a number of years ago, got together Tuesday evening at the cottage of Dr. J. C. B. Douthett at Crystal Springs, with Mrs. Douthett as hostess.

The early evening hours were spent in reminiscing and as the moon made its appearance a fire was built and as the man in the moon rode high and cast beams over the water and trees, forming shadows that transformed the glen into a fairy nook, corn was roasted in the embers and a menu of good things was prepared and served by the hostess, aided by Mrs. Norman Smith and Camilla Smith.

Out of town guests included Dr. and Mrs. Joseph Noble and son, Junior, of Philadelphia; Mrs. Grace Gibson Bryan and son, Paul, of Orlando, Fla.; and Mrs. Lulu White Cribbs of Alliance, Ohio.

Other members of the group were Mr. and Mrs. Arthur White, Miss Cordelia Roberts and Mrs. Blanche Martin Hoffmeister.

JOINT AFFAIR AT CLUB HOUSE TUESDAY

On Tuesday evening, members of the New Castle Field Club gathered at the club house for their usual joint golf and bridge event. At 6:30 o'clock the golf match was in progress, and after the players completed their game, they returned to the club rooms and there spent the remainder of the evening in a contest in contract bridge together with other associates.

At the close of the evening, prizes were awarded to Mrs. James A. Chambers and J. A. Chambers for their success in cards.

1930 Hukum Club

The 1930 Hukum Club members met in regular session at the home of Sue Dunn, West Falls street, on a recent evening.

After a brief business session "Hukum" was enjoyed with lady prizes going to Mary Gilkey and Mary Caravella. At a late hour the hostess assisted by Mary Gilkey served a dainty repast.

The next regular event will take place August 26, at the home of Mary Caravella, 1009 Dewey avenue.

FARM ELECTRIFICATION

A RECENT survey of farm electrification showed that 41.1 per cent of American farms are now served by electric light and power companies. When individual farm plants are included, the percentage of electrified farms reaches between 15 and 16. The 41.1 per cent represents, in number, 698,786 electrified farms, as compared with 177,561 served with power in 1923. Michigan heads the list of states showing an increase in electrified farms, with Illinois second.

These are interesting figures, when it is considered that much of the extension of the movement has taken place at a time when agriculture was not blessed with prosperity, and that now one out of nine American farmers has at his beck and call an unlimited supply of reasonably-priced mechanical power.

As a matter of fact, the farm electrification movement is producing results that few of us realize. It has made possible better standards of production at a lower cost. It has made great changes in the domestic and social life of the farm by bringing to it the advantages of the city home, as far as convenience and comfort are concerned, plus the peculiar advantages possessed only by the rural dweller. Electrified farming really does mean a new agricultural era.

TAX-CONSCIOUSNESS GROWS

A year from now, perhaps not for two or three years, the taxpayers will be thankful for the nuisance taxes, though they may rave and rant at them now. They are destined to prove blessings in disguise. They are awakening the usually lethargic citizen to enthusiastic support of the movement for public economy and to angry resentment against waste and extravagance. These little nuisances are parasites stinging to death that greater nuisance, excessive government cost.

Uncle Sam has been instrumental in increasing utility rates during a general hue and cry for lower rates. The check tax is a daily irritant. The new taxes on oil and gasoline and the admission tax added to the cost of a movie ticket are pin-pricks. They turn the thoughts of the taxpayer to a matter to which for years he has been comparatively indifferent—the high cost of government.

This is a wholesome reaction. Merely because he is largely responsible for making them necessary does not compel the taxpayer to accept the nuisance taxes without a murmur. There is nothing unmanly or unpatriotic in complaining about high taxes, which ought to be the first concern of civic consciousness in as much as they are symptoms of corruption and extravagance. No government governs well that burdens its citizens too heavily with taxes.

So if the country comes out of the depression with a less extravagant and spendthrift government the nuisance taxes will deserve some of the credit.

EMPLOYMENT GUARANTEED

One of the best ways of promoting more confidence among the rank and file of the citizens seems to be the plan adopted by the Delaware and Hudson railroad in conjunction with the "big four" brotherhoods recently, by which every regular employee is guaranteed 240 hours of work a month for the next year.

Countless thousands of consumers have cut down on their purchases of goods during the last few years, not because their earning power has seriously diminished but because they have been afraid that it was going to. The man who believes he is going to lose his job or go on part-time work week after next cannot be expected to maintain his normal rate of purchasing.

A plan like this one, which assures workmen that their earning power will not be reduced for an entire year, should be an excellent stimulus to buying activity.

RISING TIME

Not everybody sees the current bull market as a bubble destined to a speedy bursting, least of all the stock brokers. And if anybody is qualified to estimate the life of this market trend it is the man through whom shares are bought and sold.

The best proof that the brokers themselves are bullish is the prices they are paying for stock exchange seats. In a single day the price jumped from $30,000 to $120,000.

The upturn was not based alone on the rising number of shares changing hands. It reflects what those who follow the long-term movements of securities are thinking about the future. And they are thinking nice things about it.

Brokers can only guess but when they are willing to gamble $120,000 on their guess they are anything but pessimistic. Either they have inside information or are careful students of investor psychology. In any event they are most optimistic at this moment and that is a good sign. Confidence is returning on a tidal wave. First commodity prices start jumping high hurdles. Then small investors by the thousands muster up enough courage to rush back into the securities market and clean up. And now the brokers, who still insisted after the market began to soar that it was impossible, furnish another sign of the times by bidding exchange seats to the skies.

THE YOUNG PEOPLE
You blame the young people for what you call their "easy ways" and the subjects they discuss is mixed code.

But you are not so careful yourself as you once were in your talk. Your manner with the opposite sex is more free and easy than formerly.

The stories you tell and listen to with interest and amusement are a bit "shady."

You never heard your parents talk as you do and as your crowd does.

It would have surprised you if your parents had assumed the manner you do with the opposite sex, and still you can't understand the youth of today.

Before you censure the young folk be a little more careful yourself. You excuse yourself feeling that you are older, hence have more rights.

The example you set influences very surely. You are married and the young people look to you, naturally.

They hear a lot about the old fogies and perhaps they never thought of applying that word to you.

You have seemed to them a good sport and quite all right. So if you are too free and easy they can see no harm in following your example and they are mighty quick to discover your little failings in that direction.

THE FARM HAND
I watched him in the blazing field, harrowing for September's yield, A rugged lad in denim jeans, A subject fit for pastoral scenes, Which would have caught the eager eye

Of any artist passing by.

No mercy showed the blazing sun. I watched the heat waves roll and run Across the land, baked hard and brown,

And wondered if fine folks in town, Who smile above their evening's bread, Have any notion how they're fed.

So white and delicate and fair It comes to table everywhere That only farming people know What suffering brings the wheat to grow.

And only country boys can tell The toil that makes the soil do well. Next winter when I sit to dine Where silverware and glasses shine And bread is passed, in fancy I Will see beneath a cloudless sky, That boy enduring cruel heat.

Bolivia And Paraguay Offer Test Of New Peace Formula

International Refusal To Recognize Territorial Gains Made In Violation Of Existing Agreements Applied To South American Dispute

Pan-American notice to Bolivia and Paraguay, that territorial gains made through use of arms will not be recognized by other nations, is viewed by Americans as a test of a principle which may be a means of assuring world peace in the future. The subject of the South American quarrel is considered unimportant, though it is recognized that Bolivia needs an outlet to the sea. Interest is added by President Hoover's emphasis of the same principle that appears in the Pan-American case, in his speech of acceptance.

"Means for international arbitration and adjudication are now available for every dispute," declares the PHILADELPHIA EVENING BULLETIN, with the warning that "failure to make first resort to these means of peaceful settlement is an offense against the mind of the whole world today." THE NEW ORLEANS TIMES-PICAYUNE adds that in efforts to settle the South American quarrel, those who may be directly concerned "should follow through and find, if that is possible, a permanent solution of this ancient and continuously irritating problem of 'Paraguay' is noted for its intense nationalism," says the SCHENECTADY GAZETTE, "fostered, no doubt, by the fact that probably nearly every family in the republic lost members when the country single-handed fought Argentina, Brazil and Uruguay decades ago. After that experience we can understand the unwillingness of the Paraguayans to yield a foot of territory they believe to be rightfully theirs. This clashing of nationalism with ambition is hard to reconcile. Yet war should be prevented; and powerful neighbors of both states ought to be able to evolve a compromise that will protect their interests to a reasonable degree."

"The present trouble," thinks the OAKLAND TRIBUNE, "is simply a renewal of activities which are to be expected so long as the Gran Chaco is claimed patriotically and sentimentally by the two nations. On a smaller scale it is an argument similar to that which caused so many clashes between Chile and Peru, a boundary war between neighbors who become poorer each time they decide to fight it out. The importance of the doctrine of non-recognition of territorial changes wrought by war, according to the YOUNGSTOWN VINDICATOR, "cannot be overestimated" for "it may easily become the cornerstone of the peace of the world." THE NEW YORK HERALD TRIBUNE feels that "if there is any coercive force in international opinion, it will exert itself to prevent a war so unbelievably purposeless as this would be." THE SAN ANTONIO EXPRESS, however, points out that "apparently Bolivia and Paraguay are not heading the declaration by 19 other New World nations, including the United States, that territorial gains will not be recognized; and that 'immediate neighbors have agreed to observe strict neutrality.' The Express urges that 'common sense eventually must prevail.' THE SALT LAKE DESERET NEWS hopes that 'the influence of both Pan-America and of the League of Nations will bring sanity to the combatants.' That paper is convinced that 'it is really a matter for survivors and jurists.'"

"Washington," as observed by the MINNEAPOLIS JOURNAL, "extends to South America, at this opportunity for enunciation, the principle laid down as American policy toward Manchuria, which is to say toward Japan. This policy of non-recognition is relatively new, and so its place in the diplomacy of peace, which includes the Kellogg treaty renouncing war as an instrument of national policy must face tests before its validity can be established. It sounds well—and yet, with Japan in possession of Manchuria, the puppet government that is setting up its own policies, the latest of which is abolition of extraterritoriality where formerly that principle obtained as part of the scheme of things in China. Suppose we do not recognize the government of Manchoukuo—what are we going to do about its practices? By the same token, suppose we decline to recognize armed accomplishment in the Gran Chaco, the result is dispute between Bolivia and Paraguay? We may ostracize either country, but we must first settle the question of aggression, and that comprises much of the right and wrong of the dispute between the two countries."

"Neither Bolivia nor Paraguay," in the opinion of the INDIANAPOLIS NEWS, "can say positively where her boundaries lie in a jungle area of about 100,000 square miles. The ancient maps prepared at the direction of the Castilian Crown permit different opinions. Unless Bolivia can extend her jurisdiction over most of the Gran Chaco, she fears that her material growth will be blocked by Paraguayan success. Paraguay has kept control of the Paraguay river, which gives her an outlet to the Atlantic. Bolivia continues to be the only land-locked South American republic. Even more than a wish to dominate virtually all the swampy expanse of the natural wealth it may contain, this exclusion from an ocean port shapes her policy. But Paraguay, without mastery of the Gran Chaco, feels she forever will be doomed to sovereignty over a comparatively small district for the Gran Chaco is larger than Paraguay without it."

"The evil war spirit of the nations," remarks the BUTTE EVENING NEWS, "still holds sway, and youths continue the march to the slaughter, with parents speeding them on their way with tears and cheers of joy." As to the immediate neighbors of the LINCOLN STATE JOURNAL feels that "there is confirmation of a 'suspicion' that these people are fighting more for the fun of it than anything else."

The World AND THE Mud Puddles

NO HUMIDOR

Tobacco nearly three-quarters of a century old has been taken out of storage in Virginia to go in a case of the national museum at Washington.

Grown with slave labor in 1859 near Laurel Grove, Pittsylvania County, the tobacco was manufactured into pound plugs in 1860 at the old brick factory of Colonel C. C. Anderson at Oak Level, Halifax County.

It was forgotten during the Civil War and afterward was not sold because of the high federal tax on manufactured tobacco.

From time to time during the years since portions of the lot, it amounted to 1,100 pounds, were brought out for use as fertilizer, spray or dog-wash.

From the amount remaining, J. I. White, of Sutherland, Virginia, son of the grower of the tobacco, Dr. Thomas W. White, sent four pound-plugs to Representative Burch of Martinsville. Representative Burch will turn it over to the museum at Mr. White's request.

At a glance the tobacco would seem to be much the same as present-day "chewing" but it is without odor and apparently has lost all "life."

Weekly Health Talk

"Writers of inspirational articles frequently declare that within reason one can have what he wants if he wants it hard enough and is thus willing to work for it. And undoubtedly this fact has been definitely proven time and time again. One, indeed, reads with amazement of the handicaps and hardships that have been overcome by thousands who were bound to get what they desired. However, there is one field of commendable endeavor that has been considerably over-looked by the great majority of persons, namely health," states Doctor Theodore B. Appel, State Secretary of Health.

"The deficiency seems to arise from the mistaken assumption that of life's blessings health is the one automatic factor, requiring little or no consideration on the individual's part. Many will personally strive to acquire knowledge, wealth, position and happiness but on the subject of health they are somehow prefer to remain blissfully indifferent."

"In this connection a few days ago an acquaintance who had been unusually successful was discovered pouring over a book on bridge. He is very properly the type of man who prefers to be good at any and everything he does. But like the average, he assumed that health was scarcely within the province of his personal concern. But his attitude does not in the least alter the fact that had he displayed even a fraction of the interest in that subject that he habitually applied to the other departments of life he would likely not be the pathetic invalid he is today. Of what real value are all his other interests now?"

"The sooner the average individual realizes that health is something that everyone should reasonably be interested in, just that soon will the present high curves in many of the killing diseases be reduced, but no sooner."

"Serious conditions that do not lend themselves to public health control and many lesser diseases that take the joy, if not the life out of life, could be materially reduced in their trouble-making power by the development of a common sense regard and a consideration for health."

"However, the annual physical examination, the semi-annual visit to the dentist, and the logical though not fanatical respect for nature's fundamental demands, even though entailing but slight sacrifices in conduct, get short shrift from the majority."

"To want health, to understand its natural demands and to abide by them is perhaps the worthiest of objectives. Strange how it is overlooked by the crowd!"

Work Suspended This Afternoon For Athletic Sports

LINESVILLE, Pa., Aug. 17.—Work was suspended today by every one of the 900 men employed on the Pymatuning Reservoir Project now being conducted in Crawford county, and all joined in the Field Day exercises which were held this afternoon.

A friendly rivalry exists between the crews engaged in the clearing operations as to which crew has the best wood choppers. The men voted unanimously to forego half a day's work and stage a contest to determine who were the champions. The contests included chopping down trees, notching and sawing down trees, log sawing, and wood chopping. "Our crew wins" was the cry frequently heard as one of the crew came out victorious.

Music for the occasion was furnished by the Andover High School band, and a colored orchestra organized from one of the crews. A baseball game composed of men from two of the camps furnished the climax to the day's festivities.

Police officials would not permit this. Mostly all telephone calls are answered by Sergeants Steiner, Nelson or Syling.

ACTION IS FILED IN HYDE ESTATES

Dollar Savings Association today filed at the Prothonotary's office an action in Scire Facias mortgage against A. C. Hyde, Administrator for Beatrice Hyde, the Lawrence Savings and Trust Company, Administrator for Frank F. Hyde, and others, including legal heirs of the deceased Mr. and Mrs. Hyde. The statement of claim shows that Mrs. Hyde gave a mortgage to the association July 30, 1927 for $4,000 and that the amount now due on principal, interest and attorney's fees is $4,142.50.

Seek Heavy Damages For Fall Into Coal Hole In Sidewalk

Bessie Fisher Claims To Have Sustained Severe Injuries

Statement of claim was filed today at the prothonotary's office in the suit of Bessie Fisher and her husband, Harry Fisher, against Michael M. Fisher, Edward I. Fisher and Daniel Fisher, owners of the block at the southeast corner of Washington and Jefferson streets, in which damages in the sum of $5,847.75 are asked as a result of injuries sustained by Mrs. Fisher September 26, 1931, in a fall into a coal hole in the sidewalk for the use of the Fisher building. It is claimed that the accident and resulting injuries were the result of negligence on the part of the defendants. As Mrs. Fisher was walking along South Jeffersons street along side of this property, when she stepped on the manhole covering over the coal hole, the top tipped and she was precipitated into the hole.

She is asking $5000 damages, while Mr. Fisher is asking $297.75 to cover doctor and other expenses and $550 for the loss of his wife's services.

There was a military parade, a band concert, a bugle and drum corps and band competition and fancy talking pictures. A dinner for department officers was held in the evening and Mrs. Evelyn G. Woods, department patriotic instructor of the V. F. W. Auxiliary, was among those, who had the honor of being present at this event.

Legionnaires From 26th District Will Gather In Pittsburgh

Arrangements Have Been Made To Send Big Delegation To State Convention

American Legion Posts of the 26th District, comprising Beaver, Butler and Lawrence counties will be well represented at the coming American Legion Convention, to be held in Pittsburgh next Thursday, Friday and Saturday, August 18, 19 and 20, according to District Commander Charles S. Edwards of Rochester, Pa.

All posts will be represented by their delegates, at the convention sessions, which will be held in the mornings of the three days, at the Union Theatre. Many posts have secured trucks to transport the ex-soldiers that have been out of employment to Pittsburgh, the day of the parade.

Drum corps from Midland, Shippery Rock, Ellwood City and Rochester Posts and the Col. Joseph H. Thompson band from the Beaver Falls Post will participate in the parade from this district.

The parade will form at 1:00 p. m. and will start promptly at 1:30 p. m. Daylight Savings Time. This district will form on Vine street and the National Colors, which will be massed from all over the state, will form on Dinwiddie St. and Fifth Ave. Colonel W. R. Dunlap of Pittsburgh is grand marshal.

The order of march will be as follows: grand marshal and staff; band of Post 27, Harrisburg; department commander and commander elect; past department commanders; all present and newly elected department commanders; distinguished guests; bugle and drum corps of Post 51 of Uniontown, champions of Pennsylvania at the convention at Easton, Pa.; massed colors and the thirty six districts of the state. The parade will start from the intersection of Dinwiddie street and Fifth Ave. and will end at Irwin Ave. and Ridge Ave., on the Northside. The reviewing stand and grandstand will be located on Ridge Ave. The length of the parade will be approximately one and three quarters miles and is estimated will last about six hours, in passing one single point. Arrangements have been made to broadcast the parade over the radio and each band, drum corps and district will be announced, as they pass by.

The Forty and Eight fun making organization and side order of the American Legion, will have their parade and wreck or initiation Friday evening. The parade will start at 7:00 p. m. from Irwin and Western avenue on the Northside and will terminate at the Academy theatre, where a business meeting and initiation of approximately three hundred candidates will take place. Beaver County Voiture No. 739 and the Butler County Voiture will participate. Headquarters of the Beaver County Voiture will be at the Monongahela House. Reserved seats at a small charge, can be secured at the William Penn Hotel, headquarters of the convention, for the parade on Saturday. It is expected that a large number of people from this district will go to Pittsburgh, for the Saturday parade.

Merchants Take Over Hall At Fair

Will Have Displays In Merchants Hall During Coming Exhibition

At a recent meeting of the Better Business Bureau of the New Castle Chamber of Commerce, decision was made to take over the entire Merchants Hall at the New Castle Fair, an offer for the use of the hall having been tendered them by the directors of the fair association.

The merchants expect to have a complete exhibition of the newest styles in connection with the fair, which will probably attract widespread attention.

All the merchants in the city are cooperating in the effort to stage an exhibition of the newest things in wearing apparel and modern appliances.

FRIED ICE CREAM IS NEW DELICACY
(International News Service)

ALLENTOWN, Pa., Aug. 17.—Fried ice cream? Sure! Just like this!

Cut brick ice cream three-quarters of an inch thick; dip in egg batter and drop into very hot cooking oil. Remove at once and drain on tissue toweling a few seconds. Serve at once.

The batter is made this way: Beat three eggs until light; add three-quarters of a cup of milk, one half cup of flour and pinch of salt. Beat until very well mixed, being careful there are no lumps.

If it doesn't work, Mrs. Francis Mimmlich, 337 North Penn street, Allentown, might offer some more suggestions. That's her concoction and her family likes it, too.

Increased Coastal Shipping Pictured As An Indication Of Turning Point Of Crisis

By R. STANLEY DOLLAR
President of the Dollar Line and United States Lines

Shipping is looking better and better on the west coast. The volume of shipping is increasing gradually and this healthy increase will, in my opinion, continue steadily. Inasmuch as the transportation business is an index of sorts to all other industries, I believe the country can afford to take cheer in the trend of the last few months. It is a certainty that business couldn't have reached a lower level. This country's history is that we never stay on one level very long; we move either up or down. Inasmuch as we couldn't move down the scale any further we had to move upward.

The minute a revival is noted in any form of business, the transportation industry feels the effect immediately. Somewhere, some form of transportation benefits. Thus shipping and other forms of transportation are good to watch as a weather-vane.

FEWER AUTO OWNERS HAVE CARS TESTED
(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, Aug. 17.—The number of automobile inspected during July, first month of the second compulsory period, was less than half the total inspected in January, first month of the first period, according to the bureau of motor vehicles.

In January, 364,023 automobiles were inspected while in July only 178,185 vehicles were examined in official garages, a decrease of 185,838, the bureau reported.

Records show that 1,591,941 automobiles are registered in the state.

DID YOU KNOW? - - - By R. J. Scott

JOHN AND CHARLES TRADL, TWO ABLE-BODIED RESIDENTS OF CLEVELAND, O., DID NOT VISIT THE DOWNTOWN SECTION OF THE CITY IN 20 YEARS. WITHIN THAT TIME THE POPULATION OF THE CITY INCREASED NEARLY 650,000.

How many pores are there in the human body?

How much does the blood in the human body weigh?

Are more muscles brought into action to make a smile or a frown?

Correctly Speaking—Fix is slang for plight, situation or condition.

New Castle Man At Convention

Peter Rupp Attends Gathering Of Tin Can Tourists

The News is in receipt of a letter from Peter Rupp, who says that he is the only New Castle man attending the Tourists Tin Can convention at Findlay, Ohio. An inclosed clipping from a Findlay newspaper says:

The annual summer convention and outing of the Tin Can Tourists association officially opens this evening with a special program and dance at Green Mill Gardens. Last evening a vespere service was held at the Findlay Tourist camp.

Nearly 400 persons travelling in 168 automobiles are already camping at the park. Additional members of the tourist association expected today may bring the total near the 500 mark, officials of the organization believe.

The members of the association believe in the slogan "See America First." They spend most of their time each year travelling about the country in their homes on wheels, seeing the sights as they go leisurely over the plains and through the mountains.

Twice each year, they gather in convention to greet each other, to exchange stories of their travels, to enjoy some entertainment and least of all to transact some business. In the summer they meet in the north and in the winter in the south.

Testing Pymatuning Men's Skill Today

Novelty Show For Public Takes Place Today; Workers Stage Events

At the Pymatuning dam this afternoon contests of strength and skill harking back to the early-American days were to provide entertainment for the public. The contests have been planned for about a week.

Perhaps the star feature will be the tree-felling event. A number of tree trunks of equal diameter and same kind of wood will be planted and at the word "go," or at the bark of a pistol, the wood choppers will swing heavy. Other programs are planned for afternoon and evening.

There is no admission fee.

Unemployed In Kane Made Happy

(International News Service)

KANE, Pa., Aug. 17.—Two announcements of resumption of operations at a shirt and collar factory and the construction of a street paving project today bore glad tidings to Kane's unemployed.

The Phillips-Jones plant, idle for almost a year, will resume operations within a few weeks, giving employment to 250 persons, officials announced.

Several hundred men will also be employed in the proposed construction of a $30,000 street paving project.

BEAVERS MAKE DAM, IRRIGATE MAN'S FARM
(International News Service)

LEBANON, Pa., Aug. 17.—While scores of Lebanon county farmers complained of damage to their crops by the lack of rainfall, John Bennetch, of Bethel township, became the proud owner of a farm "flooded with water."

Unable to understand why a section of his farmland should suddenly become marshy, Bennetch investigated his property along Swatara creek and discovered the cause of the overflow.

A dam, built by a colony of industrious beavers—animals native to Pennsylvania but uncommon in Lebanon county—spanned the creek. Bennetch is proud of his beaver colony and posted state-furnished placards warning trespassers against disturbing them.

Dr. W. E. McClure

Chooses Subject

Interesting Sermon Will Be Presented Sunday In First Presbyterian Church

Dr. Walter E. McClure, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, has been crowding his church auditorium each Sunday evening, with those interested in hearing his views on various popular subjects of the day, and his theme for Sunday evening, August 21, will be another that is of interest today.

Dr. McClure has been reading a great many books and articles on Socialism, Communism, Sovietism and Bolshevism, modern attempts to change governments and his sermon theme will be "Socialism, Communism or Christianity?"

Many interesting questions will be raised and discussed. Who was the Father of Modern Socialism? Is Socialism gaining ground in the world, especially in America? Was Jesus Christ a Socialist? How is Russia thriving today? Has Russia with her five year plan had anything to do with the World Wide Depression? What is the form of government in Italy under Mussolini? Why are some ministers Socialists?

Dr. McClure will close his sermon by showing certain contrasts between the teachings of Socialism and Christianity.

There are many subtle teachers of Socialism and Communism in America today. The propaganda in the land is startling. People of New Castle ought to know what is going on, and in our immediate community. This sermon will be an eye opener to many people.

Death Of Police Chief Described

Witness Tells Story Of Murder
Involving New Castle
Man

A description of the scene at Newton Falls the morning of July 5 when Tony Rotuno former New Castle man, and his two companions are alleged to have killed Scott Vashbinder, village police chief, was given in common pleas court, at Warren, O., yesterday by T. S. Kistler, Newton Falls constable.

Kistler told how he and Vashbinder went to the telephone company building in Newton Falls and saw Rotuno and his pals, Ralph Atterholt and Owen Hunter, nearby. Kistler said he and Vashbinder returned to the bandits fire and that one of them fell.

"I started for the bandits, but stopped when I heard Vashbinder say: 'My God, help me.' I turned around to find him lying on the ground," Kistler told the court.

Other witnesses who are expected to be called are G. S. Baker of Newton Falls, who, it is reported, heard Atterholt say he was shot, and Mrs. Corrine Hunter, wife of Albert Hunter, who is alleged to have hidden Rotundo and Atterholt at his home following the Newton Falls gun battle.

Smith May Take Up Support For Gov. Roosevelt

John N. Garner Talks With Al
Smith And Feels Hopeful Of Support

(International News Service)
NEW YORK, Aug. 17.—Hope that Ex-Governor Alfred E. Smith would take an active part in the campaign to elect Governor Franklin D. Roosevelt as the next Democratic president ran high today in Democratic political circles.

It was greatly bolstered by the comment which Speaker John N. Garner, running mate of Roosevelt, made after he had called on Smith and spent an hour with him prior to his leaving last night for Washington.

"We discussed the campaign," Garner said. "I expressed the hope he would help us along in support of the Democratic ticket. I think he would be worth as much as any one man—I say more than any one man."

He said his talk led him to hope for Smith's active participation in the campaign.

Smith refused to comment on the meeting.

Claims Japan Must Yield Some Day To Chinese Resistance

By ELLIOTT W. ROBBINS
International News Service Staff
Correspondent

WILLIAMSTOWN, Mass., Aug. 17.—Japan, now in possession of Manchuria and frankly planning further conquests as far as India, cannot, in reality, hold out much longer against Chinese resistance, Dr. Kiang Kang-Hu, of McGill University, stated at the Institute of Politics.

Dr. Kiang's statement was made preceding a conference when Japanese and Russian spokesmen presented conflicting versions of the cause of the Manchurian conflict.

Kiang predicted that while Japan and Russia are at present dividing China's dependencies between them, boycott and armed resistance will soon undermine Japan's power and Chinese Reds will destroy the influence of the Russian Soviets.

Army Is Stronger

There is no prospect, he said, that Japan will obey the directions of the League of Nations, but the Chinese National Army is continually becoming stronger and coupled with economic opposition is certain to force Japan's grip in China.

Dr. Roy H. Akagi, visiting Japanese professor at Columbia University, devoted the Japan and Soviet Russia but at war in North Manchuria, but condemned Russian penetration of Sinkiang Province as another step by Communistic forces in the direction of Japan.

General Victor A. Yakhontoff, formerly of the Russian army admitted the progress of Communism into China but described Russian aims as entirely peaceful and in the direction merely of world cooperation. He decried Japanese fears of Russian attack as mere bluffs to cover up Japanese imperialism in China.

Make Inroads

"No attempt is made by Moscow to deny that Communism has made inroads into China and has found there a fertile soil for growth," Yakhontoff said.

"Their aim, like that of all fanatics, is to conquer the world. But their vision is not one of material conquest. The triumph of their ideas is what they desire and their final goal is the union and cooperation of all humanity."

Yakhontoff said there are "indications that Russia and Japan may again form some sort of entente cordiale" in the future.

POLICE UNCOVER NATIONAL MURDER RING

Fifteen Held In New York

Believe Gigantic Ring Were
"Paid Killers," Probe
Bazzano Slaying

WHOLESALE RAIDS MADE BY POLICE

(International News Service)
NEW YORK, Aug. 17.—Brooklyn police, working on mysterious tips, today believed they had uncovered a national murder ring, responsible for at least a dozen gangland "ride" murders, in cities extending as far west as St. Louis.

The "sack murder" of John Bazzano, Pittsburgh gang leader, in Red Hook a week ago, was one of the crimes. Two St. Louis murders, three Pittsburgh killings and a number of Chicago crimes were said to be tangled up in the investigation.

Fifteen Arrested
Twelve men and three women, all well dressed and wearing diamonds, were rounded up from Brooklyn hotels, and taken to borough police headquarters for questioning.

High Brooklyn police officials and investigators from the King's county district attorney's office began to gather from midnight on and as the detectives brought the prisoners in, one, two or three at a time, the officials began questioning them seriously.

"This murder of Bazzano was just one crime involved in this roundup," one detective said. "Definite information shows that this gang was bigger than Little Augie Pisanio's gang, more powerful than any gang uncovered in Brooklyn. It involved a national murder syndicate that killed for pay, whenever and wherever they got assignments."

Bazzano Slain
Bazzano came to New York from Pittsburgh, where he owned a coffee shop and, according to Pittsburgh detectives, was a czar in the underworld. Three Volpe brothers, John, Arthur, and James, remnants of the broken Chicago Capone organization, were killed when they entered his coffee shop. Then Bazzano fled.

His escape was futile. His body was found last Monday morning, at the foot of "Tin Can Mountain," a dumping ground on Center street, between Henry and Clinton streets, Brooklyn.

The police listed the prisoners as follows:
Robert Anastasio, Brooklyn; John Addo, Brooklyn; Tony Bonasero, Brooklyn; Paul Palmeri, Niagara Falls, N. Y.; Angelo Colizza, Dunmore, Pa.; Santo Volpe, Pittston, Pa.; Samuel Di Corio, Buffalo, N. Y.; Carlo Sparling, Pittsburgh; P. Ciro Gallo, Brooklyn; Michael Russo, Pittsburgh, Pa.; Frank Adriano, Pittsburgh, Pa.; Michael

Bua, Pittsburgh, Pa.; Joseph Trainia, Brooklyn; Peter Lombardi, Trenton, N. J.

Was Conspiracy
Police said they would charge that the men conspired to kill Bazzano in revenge for the killing of the three Volpe brothers.

The men will be taken to the lineup and thence to homicide court. Police said that they had reconstructed the details of the killing so that they learned that Bazzano was lured to Brooklyn on representations that he could do a stroke of profitable business. He came to New York on August 3, the police said and negotiated with the group that was plotting his death for several days. On the morning of the murder, the police said, he was lured into a place on Micks street and there stabbed 22 times and strangled.

Anastasio, the police said, was in the death house in Sing Sing for nearly 18 months a few years ago, but was granted a new trial and acquitted. Addo the police said is known as "Johnny Bath Beach" and is a familiar figure to the police. Bonasero the police said is also well known in police circles.

Wife Dies In Same Manner As Husband

UNIONTOWN, Pa., Aug. 17.—The same tragic fate that claimed her husband less than a month ago, last night overtook Mrs. Ida Newcomer in her home in Lincoln street. Both were killed by falling down the cellar stairs.

Clark Newcomer, 71, died instantly when he plunged down the stairway three weeks ago. Last night neighbors heard screams from the Newcomer home and they found Mrs. Newcomer, who was 70, dead in the basement with her head almost severed. In falling down the steps she had struck a door with a glass panel.

SEVENTH WARD NEWS

AUXILIARY GROUP TO STAGE OUTING AT 'GROVE' SITE

M. E. G. Members Lay Picnic
Plans At Meeting; Are Entertained

Members of the M. E. G. auxiliary of the Mahoning Presbyterian church, their husbands and families will go to Cottage Grove, along the Neshannock creek, for an outing on Thursday evening, August 18, the members decided at their regular meeting in the home of Mrs. Evan Campbell, Clayton street, Tuesday.

Dinner, it was announced, will be served about 7 o'clock by Miss Evelyn Marshall, Mrs. H. E. Alexander and Mrs. Carl Bender. Transportation, to be furnished all guests, will be handled by Mrs. Walde Daugherty and her aides.

At the Campbell home yesterday, where the group was delightfully entertained, a "chain" apron being circulated among the members was completed. It is a novelty means of gaining funds for the new furnace at the Presbyterian church.

Mrs. H. E. Alexander, president of the auxiliary, presided yesterday. The next meeting of the group will occur on Tuesday, September 13.

Volunteer Ladies Gather Tonight To Talk Relief Task

Dozen Ward Women Pledge
Aid To School Tots'
Clothing Project

A volunteer group of Seventh ward ladies will band together tonight for the first time to map out a definite organization for keeping the clothing of needy school children of the ward in wearable shape next winter. The American Red Cross is sponsoring the move.

At the home of Mrs. Richard E. Gwilym, 315 West Madison avenue, a delegation of 10 or 15 women will meet to hear Orville Potter, Red Cross secretary, and other Red Cross attaches explain the job for which the group has so willingly offered their services. They will also hear other speakers.

The main objective of tonight's meeting is to keep poor youngsters clothed when the cold winds blow next winter.

Uptown, the Parent-Teacher chapters at different school buildings and the Federation of Women's Clubs is promoting the work, but in the ward no P. T. A. chapter functions.

It is believed the volunteers will form a definite working organization tonight.

HOME FROM NIAGARA

Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Olmstead and son, Bobby, of Fifth street, have returned from a short motor trip to Niagara Falls.

FIRE THREATENS W. E. FEVER HOME

Second ward firemen made a hurried run to the home of W. E. Fever of the New Wilmington road, where they extinguished a brush fire which threatened to spread to the residence near by.

The run to the home was made in record time, and while most of the fire had burned itself out when they arrived on the scene, they succeeded in preventing further damage. It was first reported to the firemen that the home was afire, neighbors believing this to be the case.

Pirates Trample Brooklyn 4 To 0

Pirates With French In Shape Humble Dodgers, Yanks Increase Lead

CLEVELAND TEAM IN SECOND SPOT

By LES CONKLIN
International News Service Sports Writer

NEW YORK, Aug. 17.—The New York Yankees had arrived at the mathematical snipost in the American league marathon today by downing Detroit two, 13 to 8 and 7 to 3, at the start of a long home stand of 24 games.

If the Yanks win only 20 of their 41 remaining games, the second place Cleveland club will have to win 30 of their 40 contests to tie them. If New York continues to steam along at a .690 pace their present mark in the percentage table, Cleveland faces the well nigh impossible task of winning 39 out of 40 to clinch the flag.

Have Big Lead

Cleveland's chances approximate those of the Athletics, who yielded second place to the Indians yesterday when catcher Glen Myatt's home run with a man on base gave Cleveland a 3 to 2 decision over the A's. Harder and Earshaw pitched.

The Yanks lead Cleveland by 10½ games. Their two victories over the Tigers stretched their winning streak to nine straight. Tony Lazzeri led New York at bat with three home runs.

In the National League, the pace making Cubs inaugurated a stand against the Eastern clubs like champions by nosing out Boston in the ninth, 4 to 3, after having been held to two hits and no runs by Ed Brandt for eight innings. Doubles by Herman, English and Cuyler, an error by Urbanski and singles by Stephenson, Moore and Jorges turned the trick.

Pirates Win

A brilliant hurling duel between Larry French of Pittsburgh and Bill Clark of Brooklyn was broken up when the Pirates scored four runs in the eighth inning. In the midst of the rally Al Lopez, Brooklyn catcher, hit Clark, his battery mate, on the head with a throw intended for the second baseman. The final score was 4 to 0.

The Cardinals advanced to within a game of the first division as Paul Derringer turned back the Phillies 3 to 2. The Cards have won eight of their last nine starts.

Terry's double and Lindstrom's single in the ninth gave Fred Fitzsimmons of the Giants a 2 to 1 decision over Owen Carroll of the Reds.

The Chicago White Sox dropped their seventh straight game, losing to Washington 5 to 3. Wally Stewart of the Browns subdued the Red Sox 3 to 2.

New Castle Ukes Defeat Sharon

New Castle Ukes baseball team handed the Sharon Ukes a 5 to 0 setback in a game played at the Lehigh field, Monday evening. J. Shaffie on the mound for the New Castle Ukes pitched a two-hit game. He fanned eight men. Sivlich was the hurler for the Sharonites. The locals won the game by bunting hits in the fifth and eighth innings.

Score by innings: R. H. E. Sharon . . . 000 000 000—2 5 2 New Castle . . . 000 020 03x—5 6 0 Batteries: Sharon—Sivlich and Thomas. New Castle—J. Shaffie and Semanski. Umpires—Shultz and Paul Petro.

HERE AND THERE IN SPORTS' LAND

Card from M. J. Donnelly says he witnessed 10 bouts of three rounds each at the Olympics. "Boy—What bouts! Exciting! Never saw any professional bouts like these. They are for blood and no fooling" M. J. writes. He occupied seat 115, in row 17 of the first aisle, according to the stubs he sends here.

Joe Mangold, referee, raised the hand of Stanley Poreda after the Poreda-Carnera fight at Newark last night. According to reports the decision was not so good.

Ernie Pinckel, University of Southern California, All-American halfback has signed a contract to play pro football with the New York Giants. He will receive $5,000 for the season, the report states.

Wingerd Enters Tennis Tourney

Lowell H. Wingerd, 1931 Champion Enters Third Annual Tennis Tourney

Lowell H. Wingerd, 1931 senior champion, today mailed his entry to Tully Caiazza, director of the third annual tennis tourney, and with Wingerd's entry the other New Castle stars such as Bob Lamoree, Harold Baer and Clarence England joined up, thus assuring the tourney of a lot of fine competition.

The entry blanks will be available at the Cripps Hardware Store, Sporting Goods Store, and from either Tully Caiazza, Johnny Brincko or Hymie Levine up until August 22. There are over 30 now entered in the championship tourney. Seven beautiful loving cups have been secured for the various winners. The entries to date will be published in the Thursday edition of The News. Watch for it.

Stanley Poreda Defeats Carnera

(International News Service)
NEWARK, N. J., Aug. 17.—Stanley Poreda today has two pretty good scalps dangling in his belt. His recent victory over Ernie Schaaf has been augmented by a ten-round triumph over Primo Carnera.

Primo was the aggressor. Too much so for his own point scored good, perhaps, as the referee cautioned Carnera many times for using his elbows while attempting to upercut at close quarters.

NEW YORK, Aug. 17.—The ugly word "quitter" was applied to Max Schmeling, the fighter today by Jack Kearns, the manager, by way of formal greetings and salutations upon the occasion of the former heavyweight champion's decision to accept Mr. Kearns' pugilist, a certain Ray Walker, as an opponent here on September 19.

The match of which the milk fund is to be beneficiary-in-chief, was officially closed in the midst of some random bickering between Mr. Kearns and Schmeling's Mr. Jacobs during which the former is alleged to have hinted darkly about Schmeling's "past."

He is supposed to have said something unpleasant about withdrawing or resigning of scuffling or maybe yielding under fire, but when I looked Mr. Kearns up this morning, he denied this utterly.

Says Max Is Quitter
"That's a lie," said the gentleman. "In fact," said he, "it's a dastardly outrage. I didn't say Schmeling would succumb. I said he'd quit the first good chance he got. He did it with Dickmann, he did it with Larry Gains and Gypsy Daniels. He did it that first time with Sharkey and he'll do it again as soon as some man with real courage gets in there with him."

The Dutchman can't take it. Worse than that, he won't take it. I'm not trying to talk Walker up. It's easier to talk Schmeling down. He's no fighter and the sooner we find out about it the better for fighting in the heavyweight division."

Meter-Subs Win Mushball Game

Meter-Subs mullball team won from the Office team 15 to 13 in a Penn-Power Company mullball league game at Cascade Park last evening.

The game was a heavy slugfest affair, with 38 hits being hung up. Errors were quite frequent. Todd and Pandos featured the game with home runs. Schweikart, Hope, Hughes, Mason and Flavian were the heavy hitters of the game. The Meter-Subs won when Katz singled, scoring three runs. Hook and Hensley did the pitching.

Score by innings: R. H. E. Meter-Subs . . . 102 161 130—15 19 6 Office . . . 111 230 010—13 19 3 Umpire—Carlson.

Franklin A. C. Wins Over Canyons 13-7

Franklin A. C. mullball team took a 13 to 7 victory over the fast Canyons A. C. in a game at Canyon field last evening. The Franklin team got to Ritchie for 17 hits and 13 runs, while the Canyons had a hard time in solving the pitching of Sumner and Llewellyn. Heavy hitting was done by Sumner, Fazzone, T. Fair, Testa, J. Fair, Copple, Ingram and Llewellyn.

Score by innings: R. H. E. Canyons A. C. . . . 202 030 000—7 9 2 Franklins . . . 410 002 033—13 17 2 Batteries—Franklin A. C.: Llewellyn, Sumner and McKay; Canyons: A. Ritchie and Fazzone. Umpires: Owens and Brooks.

DIAMOND DUST

Mash made five putouts for the Young Yankees when he played shortstop against the News Slugs. Ostrosky, third base for the News Slugs made five putouts.

Smiths have become one of the best drawing teams in the City Mushball league. They have won 31 games and lost seven. The Lockleys also draw big crowds and head the league.

Green and Marino batted the mullball for three bases when the Lockleys trimmed the National Radlators 14 to 7. The Lockleys scored six of their runs in the fifth inning.

There will be a diversified program at Centennial field, Saturday. There will be a mullball game as a preliminary to the Scarazzo-Oil City Pennzill baseball game.

Shaw had six assists when he played shortstop for the Orr A. C. against the Elder A. C. The latter won six to two. His rival shortstop, Marki, turned in the same number of assists.

The Lawrence County Baseball league schedule will not be played out until September 1. Each of the teams have seven games to play, not including any postponed games.

The Twilight circuit has about completed its schedule and a series for the league championship will be played. When the Lawrence and Twilight flag winners clash there'll be a big crowd.

OLIVER'S ADVENTURES

LIVER LOST NO TIME RUNNING BACK TO CAMP AFTER SEEING THE TWO SINISTER-LOOKING MEN PUSH OFF IN THEIR HEAVILY LOADED BOAT—LOADED WITH THOSE BAGS WHICH THE PAIR HAD BEEN TING, AND WHICH LOOKED FOR THE WORLD LIKE MAIL BAGS.

HELLO, SON— DID YOU SEE THE GATOR? WHAT'S THE HURRY? IS HE FOLLOWING YOU, TO SNAP YOU UP?

BUT OLIVER RAN STRAIGHT TO THE MAIL PLANE, TO FIND OUT THE WORST—

HEY FELLOWS! OUR MAIL BAGS HAVE BEEN STOLEN!

The Old Home Town — By Stanley

NOPE— IT AINT A FIGHT— JUST A POLITICAL ARGUMENT THAT REACHED A POINT WHERE THEY COULDN'T SETTLE IT WITH WORDS.

SO YOU DONT LIKE MY POSITION ON DEBT CANCELLATION?

NO! AND I STILL THINK A TARIFF ON CELLULOID TOOTHPIKS IS TERRIBLE.

OW!!

THE MIDSUMMER POLITICAL ARGUMENTS AT BAXTER'S STORE ARE RUNNING ABOUT TWO WEEKS AHEAD OF THEIR USUAL SCHEDULE.

NOW, BETH, BUDDY AND I ARE GOING TO SLIP UP TO WHERE HE THINKS HE SAW THE 'BUBBLE' AND DO A BIT OF RECONNOITERING.

YES, DAD YES!

I DON'T LIKE TO LEAVE YOU AND DONNIE ALONE. THERE MAY BE DANGER. SO YOU TWO GET INTO 'H' LAUNCH AND BE READY TO SHOVE OFF AT THE FIRST SIGN OF DANGER. YOU KNOW HOW TO RUN IT.

YOU THEE IF YOU CAN FIND MY HAT.

There It Is!

NOW THEN, BUDDY, COME ALONG. WE MUST SEE HOW THE LAND LIES. KEEP MIGHTY QUIET! WE DON'T KNOW HOW MANY OF THEM THERE ARE!

SEE DAD! LOOK! DOWN THROUGH THOSE BRANCHES!

BY GEORGE! IT'S THE BUBBLE ALL RIGHT!

ETTA KETT

SEE, ETTA— IF I CAN MAKE LOVE TO THIS GIRL, AND GET HER TO FORGET SCROGGS— HELL STILL LEAVE ME HIS MONEY, AND I CAN MARRY YOU!

WELL, I'M SORRY I WAS JEALOUS— IT'S A SWEET PLAN AND I WISH YOU LUCK.

I'LL HAVE TO BE CAREFUL— IF SCROGGS CATCHES ME FLIRTING WITH HIS GIRL, FRIEND, HELL GET SORE AT AND CUT ME OFF WITHOUT A CENT!

Choose Your Exit, Harry

YOU'RE WASTING YOUR TIME— HOW ABOUT A DATE WITH ME BABY? MAKE IT SNAPPY BEFORE THE BOYS SHOWS UP!

SILLY— STICK AROUND— IT'S EARLY— MR SCROGGS WON'T BE OVER TILL EIGHT!

I'LL DROP IN TO SEE MY LIL LOLLY POP EARLY THIS EVENING— SHE'LL BE SURPRISED!

BRINGING UP FATHER

GENTLEMEN! I WILL NOW INTRODUCE TO YOU, MISS ANN TIGUE WHO WILL TALK TO YOU ABOUT THE COMING ELECTION FOR MAYOR OF OUR FAIR CITY.

GENTLEMEN, DON'T BE DECEIVED BY THIS CANDIDATE, MR. JIGGS. WHAT THIS CITY NEEDS IS AN INTELLIGENT FAIR-MINDED PERSON. ONE WHO WILL HAVE THE PEOPLE'S INTEREST AT HEART.

WE DON'T WANT A WEAK FAT-HEAD. A MAN WHO IS AFRAID OF HIS WIFE. WHO DOESN'T EVEN DARE TO THINK FOR HIMSELF. IF YOU DON'T INTEND TO VOTE FOR MISS LOTTA VOTES, AT LEAST YOU SHOULD WANT A MAN WHO IS THE MASTER OF HIS HOME.

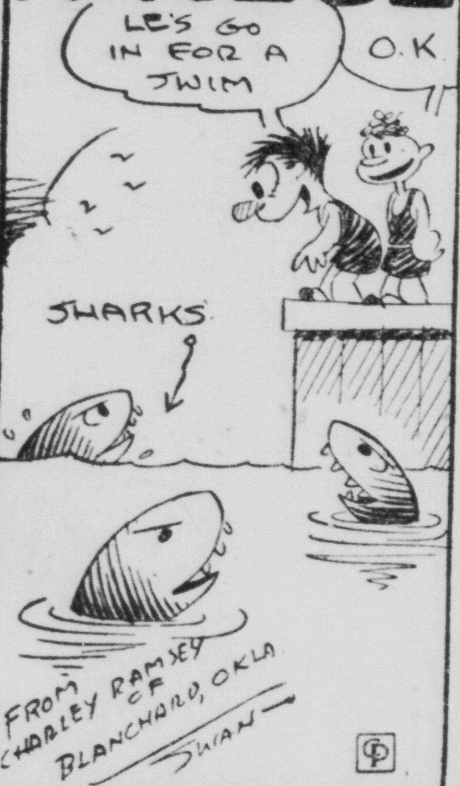

WHERE CAN YOU FIND ONE?

THAT REMINDS ME. MY WIFE TOLD ME TO BE HOME AT TWO O'CLOCK.

With HOWE'S BRITISH ARMY BLOCKADED IN BOSTON, THE AMERICANS SAW A CHANCE TO STRIKE A TELLING BLOW AT THE ENEMY IN CANADA. REPORTS CAME TO WASHINGTON THAT SIR GUY CARLETON, GOVERNOR OF CANADA, HAD ONLY A FEW TROOPS AT HIS COMMAND AND THAT MANY CANADIANS WERE IN SYMPATHY WITH THE AMERICANS. . . .

Market Rally
Resumed Today

Rails And Utilities Lead In Market Upturn Shortly
After Opening

N. Y. CENTRAL
WORKED HIGHER

(International News Service)
NEW YORK, Aug. 17.—The stock market in the forenoon today was under the influence of the American Telephone dividend meeting at noon. There was sufficient uncertainty over the outcome even though maintenance of the $9 rate was generally anticipated to bring cross currents into the market.

Stocks started under the pressure of some profit-taking. This passed off quickly and a rally started under the leadership of the rails and utilities. Individual bullish demonstrations were given by Westinghouse and Auburn. The latter spurred more than 3 points but was unable to hold all its gain.

N. Y. Central again was heavily bought and worked higher. Union Pacific staged another spurt. Low-priced rails generally were in big demand at rising prices. Consolidated Gas led the utilities with the low-priced members of the group prominent here, too.

The buying rush which sent the ticker slightly behind petered out at the end of the first hour and the market again took to an irregular appearance. U. S. Steel issues were inclined to sluggishness on failure of operations to pick up American Telephone bobbed up and down in a 2-point range.

Wheat provided some help with a recovery from yesterday's weakness but the stimulating influence was continued strength in the bond market. Railroad obligations gave another buoyant demonstration and the rest of the list followed. Cotton rallied after slumping 75 cents a bale. Other commodities were firm.

A feature was a run-up in the amusement shares, Loew's setting the pace with a 3-point spurt.

Outlook Is Better
In Steel Industry

(International News Service)
NEW YORK, Aug. 17.—Although steel ingot operations have not risen above 14 per cent of capacity, there are a number of encouraging signs of prospective business improvements, the weekly Iron Age Review stated today.

Among the favorable indications are a marked gain in demand for pig iron, including a number of inquiries of fairly good size for fourth quarter delivery, continuing strength in scrap markets, the resumption of steel buying on a small scale by many manufacturers whose plants have been wholly or partially shut down during recent weeks, and seasonal orders and inquiries from consumers whose business normally expands in the fall, such as stove and furnace makers.

Steel furniture manufacturers are having a sizable pick-up in orders because of requirements for the many government buildings now being completed.

However, at Chicago, the steel orders from miscellaneous sources have taken up the slack caused by smaller releases from the automobile industry.
July output of motor cars was 112,600 units, a decline of 41 per cent from June, and it is indicated that the August total will be the lowest of the year thus far.
Scrap steel prices have gained strength in virtually all centers, resulting in a further increase in the iron ore composite price to heavy melting steel to $6.92, the highest since early June and gain of 50c a ton from the year's low of early July, but pig iron has weakened at Philadelphia, being down 50c a ton, largely because of foreign competition.

DRY CANDIDATE MAKES PROMISES

William D. Upshaw of Asheville, N. C., the Prohibition party's nominee for the presidency, shown here with his family, has three outstanding planks in his platform. They are (1) a place in the cabinet for a woman; (2) immediate resignation of every gov-ment official given to personal use of liquor; (3) withdrawal of special postal privileges to all newspapers and magazines advocating repeal of prohibition. With Upshaw and Mrs. Upshaw, above, are their two daughters, Margaret, 19, left, and Charlotte, 16.

Motorists Should Not Park Against
Current Of Traffic

Having launched a movement to prevent parking of automobiles for an unlimited time in restricted parking places and put double parking on the taboo list, Chief of police John Haven today said that automobilists who park their cars against the current of traffic will receive the attention of police.

"How about automobilists parking their cars against the current of traffic and especially at night?" the chief was asked today.

"That's not allowed here and the officers are expected to watch for a situation like that," the chief replied.

Parking of automobiles against the current of traffic is more common on residential thoroughfares than in the business district, it is reported.

May Establish
College Class
In This City

School Board Accepts Recommendation Of Superintendent Last Night

Plan Hinges Upon Satisfactory Enrollment In Freshman Classes Here

ELLWOOD CITY, Aug. 17.—If plans of the superintendent and board of education of the Ellwood City Schools come through many students in Ellwood City will find it financially possible and convenient to continue their education in higher classes, for a branch of the Freshman class of Geneva college will be started here. All of course depends upon a satisfactory enrollment in the classes.

Arrangements have been made with Geneva College for a branch of their Freshman class to be established here provided there are enough local pupils interested. The classes will be conducted in the Lincoln Building by regular Geneva professors, and will consist of 150 minutes recitation each week for each course given. The schedule of classes will be arranged later, but the first class will probably begin about 2:00 o'clock each afternoon.

The purpose of this class is to provide college instruction for those who cannot consider full time work this year. Many pupils have come back to high school each year to take post-graduate work. This has enabled them to continue their contact with school but in a sense it is marking time for the work completed in the high school cannot be recognized as college credit. The classes to be offered by Geneva will carry full college credit. This means that pupils may remain at home, and take as little as a single three hour full college credit.

The tuition cost which is payable directly to Geneva College will be $21.00 for a three credit course. This is the regular Geneva tuition charge.

Members of the Ellwood City branch of the Freshman class will enjoy all the privileges of the students on the campus. They will be included in all social functions, and will receive student rates on athletic tickets.

Mrs. Thos. Wilson
Entertains Club

ELLWOOD CITY, Aug. 17.—An enjoyable meeting was held by the members of the Dinner-Bridge Club at the home of Mrs. Thomas Wilson on the New Castle road, Tuesday afternoon.

An afternoon of cards on the large porch was the chief diversion of the day. Mrs. William Beyer, Mrs. Miss Kathryn Hainer were found to be the winners of the prizes for club members and guests respectively. Light refreshments were served later by the hostess.

The next meeting of the club will take place in two weeks at a place to be determined.

Ellwood Youth Is Admitted To Bar

ELLWOOD CITY, Aug. 17.—Word was received here this morning that Harold Infield, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Infield of this city, was admitted to the bar just recently. He had graduated from the Akron Law school in June and just this week he took and passed the State bar examination.

Incidentally Ellwood is well represented with attorneys in Ohio. Kenneth Baker and Richard Nye are practicing law there. Attorney Infield expects to practice law in Akron, it was revealed.

JOSEPH HUDSPATH
ELLWOOD CITY, Aug. 17.—While returning from this city to his home in Ellport Monday evening, Joseph Hudspath had the unpleasant experience of having a snake strike at him and enircle his leg. He succeeded in shaking the reptile loose without encountering its fangs.

A neighbor, Bernard Beisecker heard his outcry and despatched it with his rifle. After much discussion as to its classification, it was decided to exhibit it to Squire Gartley who pronounced it a copperhead. James Main, a nonagenarian, and who has spent his entire lifetime in this section, relates many stories of copperhead snakes which have infested the banks of the Connoquessing creek at this point for many years. He tells of the menace they were to the animals and of the difficulty of keeping a dog, which fell victim of their venomous bites, on his father's farm where the boro is now located. With the advent of the building of homes and the activities of the quarries this specie has now become rare in this section.

AERONAUT VISITS
ELLWOOD CITY, Aug. 17.—Much excitement was aroused last evening, especially among the younger fry in the vicinity of North Star school house when a monoplane was seen to circle and alight in the ball field of that place. Upon investigation it was found to be Jack Harper, a former local boy who is employed at Cleveland and had alighted to pay a short visit to the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Harper who reside at Knox.

The machine, which is a three cylinder monoplane was built by the driver and was visited and inspected by a large crowd of curious spectators.

Gives Information
On School Opening

Supt. V. R. DeLong Gives Essential Facts About Local Schools

ELLWOOD CITY, Aug. 17.—Supt. V. R. DeLong gave an outline of his plans relative to the opening of schools in about two weeks to the board of education at its special meeting in the school rooms last night. The following information was given last night.

Thursday, September 1, has been set as the opening date of school. Classes will begin in the Central and Lincoln schools at 8:30 o'clock. Classes in the other buildings will begin at 9:00 o'clock. The pupils in grades one to six inclusive will report to the building in their own ward. Pupils in grades 7B, 7A, and 8B will report to the Central Building. The Burnstown pupils in grades one to six will report to the Ewing Park Building. All others will report to the Central and Lincoln Buildings as indicated above.

All beginning pupils should be vaccinated before school starts. All parents of beginners who have not shown the child's birth certificate to the census enumerator should bring it to school on the opening day so that the official date of birth may be recorded.

All pupils in 5A, 6B and 6A who live in the First Ward are to report to the Hartman Building. 5B pupils who live in the First Ward are to report to the West End Building.

North Side W.C.T.U.
Elects Officers

ELLWOOD CITY, Aug. 17.—An all day meeting of the North Side W. C. T. U. took place Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Ed. Barkley on the Wampum road with 28 members present at the time.

Following a delicious tureen dinner the annual election of officers was held. Mrs. W. K. Ramsey was elected president; Mrs. Charles Boggs, vice-president; Mrs. Minnie Marsh, secretary; Mrs. Frank Potter, treasurer.

Plans were then formulated for a corn roast to be held on the third Tuesday in September at the home of Mrs. Matheny on the Wampum road. At the close of the business meeting an interesting social period was enjoyed.

Amelia Herge Is Pleasing Hostess

ELLWOOD CITY, Aug. 17.—With delightful hospitality Miss Amelia Herge entertained the members of the 29-30 Club at her home on Todd avenue last evening. The home presented a restful appearance in its floral appointments.

Bridge at two tables occupied the attention of the guests for the larger portion of the evening at the conclusion of which Miss Margaret Battersby and Miss Beatrice Brown received the high score awards. At a later hour the hostess with the assistance of Miss Brown served a delicious menu, much to the pleasure of those present.

The next meeting of the club will take place in two weeks at the home of Miss Viola Vogler on Todd Ave.

ENTERTAIN FRIENDS
ELLWOOD CITY, PA., Aug. 17.—The home of Mr. and Mrs. John Brown of New Castle Hill was the scene of a merry gathering when their daughters Esther and Gladys entertained a number of their young friends Saturday evening.

No Arrests For Double Parking

Reports Show That Automobiles Heed Warning Of Mayor

DOUBLE PARKING LAW TO BE ENFORCED HERE

No automobiles were parked double last Saturday night according to a report which reached Mayor Chas. B. Mayne today. Police watched the thoroughfares in the central business district and no one double parked according to their report.

One week ago the mayor who presides as police judge issued a warning that any person who parked his or her machine double Saturday night would not escape without paying a fine. According to the results of the warning, it was given serious attention.

Not only on Saturday night but during the week days and during the night time, double parking is taboo and police have been given orders to watch for violations.

Double parking at night is done mostly by "shiksies" and "gas hawks" according to the mayor who said that one week ago Saturday night he watched a young man park double three times within a block though the young man had spaces into which he could park.

Beaver Attorney Kiwanis Speaker

Draws Attention To Many Fatalities Caused By Autos

"We are through with the horse and buggy days," declared Attorney Homer H. Swaney, prominent Beaver Falls resident, in a Highway Accident Prevention Month talk at the Kiwanis club luncheon, "and there is no longer an animal to make up for the lack of intelligence in the driver. The car itself, despite the lamps which look like bulging eyes, is sightless; it sees not; it is brainless; it thinks not; it is heartless; it feels not; it is without compassion, so the driver must supply what the car itself lacks."

Attorney Swaney spoke at The Castleton, before the club members and local and state police officials. Motor club representatives also heard the valley speaker's address.

The Kiwanians today learned that Governor Pinchot has set apart August as Highway Accident Prevention Month, urging each and every motorist and pedestrian to exert extreme care in their movements on the highways and streets. "Motor vehicles," reminded the guest speaker, "killed 862 persons and injured 17,970 during the past six months. The property damage was $2,345,500." Figures of last year's accidents and their far-reaching effects were cited.

It was reported in the talk that 58 Pennsylvania pedestrians were killed in the first six months of this year by darting out from behind cars parked along streets.

Take Four Into Tow For Night

Pugnacious Disposition And Moonshine Do Not Mix Very Good

It is a well known fact that gasoline and liquor will not mix. And neither will four young men of a pugnacious disposition and a bottle of moonshine.

This was borne out vividly last night when three police were dispatched to South street to act as referee in what was said to be a battle. When the officers, M. J. Young, Thomas and Laterra arrived on the scene they discovered four young men, three of whom had had their names spread at different times on the police docket.

However, when the police arrived the battle, if there had been one, had been fought, it was over and there was nothing for the police to do but look the situation over.

They did this, then went into a huddle and decided that the best act they could do for all four would be to give them one night's lodging behind bars at the city jail.

One of the four, however, who is not a frequenter of police courts had a five dollar bill. He placed this as a forfeit for his appearance before His Honor, the mayor today.

The small bottle of moonshine was disposed of via the sewer and as the offense which had been committed last night was not considered serious, they were all discharged today.

Young People Planning Hike

Young People's Socialist League Holds Meeting Last Night

A well attended meeting of the Young People's Socialist League was held last night in the party headquarters, 124 South Mill street and plans made for a hike to be held next week. The hike will be an event of Tuesday, the start being made from party headquarters at 9 a. m. The League also plans a series of social events in the near future.

Lawrence Mission
The Lawrence Mission, which has been organized to aid the needy and supply bread, has headquarters at 432 West Grant street, and would like to have an organ or piano to aid them in their religious services. If any one has an instrument they are willing to donate to the mission and will get in touch with Rev. G. A. Simmins, 422 Wood street, he will have some one call for same.

Lincoln School Reunion Planned For September 9

Second Of These Events Is Now Being Planned For By Officers

Officers of the Lincoln school Association, membership in which is limited to former students of the school between 1880 and 1900, met last night and made plans for the second annual reunion.

It was decided that this event should be held at 7 p. m. on Friday September 9 in the school building. Last year, the affair was an immense success with hundreds of former students of the school including the Hon. Thomas W. Phillips Jr. of Butler, who was the speaker of the occasion, in attendance.

From the interest being manifested, there is every indication that the attendance this year will be greater than last year.

Democrat Chiefs Call On Raskob

Talk Over Matter Of $400,000 Deficit Facing Democratic Party

(International News Service)
NEW YORK, Aug. 17.—Four men who hold the financial reins of the Roosevelt-Garner bandwagon called on John J. Raskob today to talk over the delicate matter of the $400,000 deficit inherited by the Democratic party from the 1928 campaign of former Governor Alfred E. Smith.

The four financial directors of the campaign are James A. Farley, who succeeded Raskob as national chairman; Frank C. Walker, national treasurer; former Gov. Harry P. Byrd of Virginia, chairman of the executive committee of the finance board; and Robert Jackson, chairman of the speakers' bureau.

Raskob, before their arrival at his office in the Empire State Building, warned reporters he would not discuss the meeting and that any comment would have to come from Farley.
